1. In the fight, say, does your heart grow weary? Do you find your path is rough and thorny, And above the sky is dark and stormy? Never mind, go on! Lay aside all fear, and onward pressing, Bravely fight and God will give his blessing; Though the war at times may prove distressing, Never mind, go on! When the road we tread is rough, Let us bear in mind, In our Savior strength enough We may always find; Though the fighting may be tough Let our motto be: Go on, go on to victory!

(2. Faithful) be, de-laying not to follow Where Christ leads, though it may be through precious; If the strife should fiercer grow tomorrow, Never mind, go on! Cheerful be, it will your burdens lighten, One glad heart will always others bless; Though the strife the coward's soul may frighten, Never mind, go on! Do your best in fighting for your Savior, For his sake fear not to lose men's favor; If beside you should a comrade waver, Never mind, go on!

(3. When down) heart-ed, look a-way to Jesus, Who for you did shed his blood most sor-row; If the strife should fiercer grow tomorrow, Never mind, go on! Let us say, though all the world should hate us: Never mind, go on! Though the war at times may prove distressing, Never mind, go on! For his sake fear not to lose men's favor; If beside you should a comrade waver, Never mind, go on!
